The Department of Basic Science and Humanities of Regent Education & Research Foundation Group of Institutions (RERFGI) has organized a seminar on "Engineering Science: Its Scope, Prospect, and Future" on 17th May, 2024, in Seminar Hall at 12:30 p.m. Engineering science is a dynamic and growing field that lies at the heart of modern technological progress. It aims to bridge the gap between scientific knowledge and its practical application in real-world engineering problems and challenges facing society today—from climate change and energy sustainability to healthcare and urbanization. This interdisciplinary approach not only improves the design and development of technology but also fosters innovation across various industries and improve lives, driving progress toward a more sustainable and technologically advanced world. The seminar aimed to aware the students about the scope and perspective of engineering students on science. The seminar observed a momentous turnout with a diverse audience of students and faculty members. The organizing committee was formed as follows:
