Outcome of the Program:

The "Cultural Kaleidoscope" event successfully highlighted the rich cultural heritage of women through traditional crafts, art exhibitions, and homemade culinary delights. Participants gained hands-on experience in weaving, pottery, and embroidery, fostering a deeper appreciation for these crafts. The art and exhibitions, along with diverse food stalls, showcased the creativity and cultural diversity of women artisans, students, and faculty members. The event promoted cross-cultural understanding, empowered women by celebrating their contributions to cultural preservation, and created a vibrant community atmosphere centered around shared traditions and artistic expression. There were total 88 students and 78 faculties participated in this program.

Budget:

The budget for the "Cultural Kaleidoscope" was meticulously planned and managed to ensure the effective allocation of resources:

- Venue and Logistics: 10000 INR
- Catering Services: 1000 INR
- Awards and Certificates: 1000 INR
- Miscellaneous Expenses: 3000 INR

Total Budget: 15000 INR

All expenses were within the allocated budget, contributing to the overall success of the event without financial overreach.

Conclusion:

The "Cultural Kaleidoscope" event concluded by successfully celebrating women's contributions to traditional crafts, art, and culinary heritage. Through engaging exhibitions, and food stalls, participants gained a deeper appreciation for cultural diversity and the vital role women play in preserving it. The event fostered a sense of community and empowerment, highlighting the importance of supporting and celebrating women's achievements across cultures. Attendees left inspired to continue promoting cultural heritage and diversity.
