Report of Workshop on Design Thinking, Critical Thinking, and Innovation Design (25th January 2024)

Introduction

On the 25th of January, 2024, preceding the Poster Presentation and Design Competition, the Regent Education and Research Foundation Group of Institutions hosted an intensive workshop titled "Workshop on Design Thinking, Critical Thinking, and Innovation Design." Held at the RERFGI Seminar Hall from 11 AM to 5 PM, this event aimed to delve deeper into the methodologies and applications of design thinking, critical thinking, and innovation in solving complex problems and fostering creativity within academic and professional contexts.

Objective

The primary objectives of the workshop were:

To Enhance Understanding of Design Thinking: To equip participants with a comprehensive understanding of design thinking principles and processes, enabling them to approach problems with a solution-oriented mindset that values user experience and empathetic design.

To Foster Critical Thinking Skills: To develop participants' critical thinking abilities, encouraging them to analyze problems thoroughly, question assumptions, and evaluate solutions critically for their effectiveness and sustainability.

To Stimulate Innovation: To inspire creativity and innovation among attendees, guiding them on how to apply design and critical thinking skills in conceptualizing and developing innovative products, services, or processes.

To Encourage Collaborative Learning: To promote collaboration among participants from various disciplines, facilitating the exchange of ideas and approaches that can lead to innovative solutions.

To Provide Hands-On Experience: To offer practical, hands-on experiences through interactive sessions and activities that allow participants to apply the concepts learned in real-world scenarios, thereby solidifying their understanding and skills.

By focusing on these objectives, the workshop aimed to create a dynamic learning environment where participants could gain valuable insights and tools to enhance their academic and professional endeavors through the application of design thinking, critical thinking, and innovation design principles.

Resource Person:

The workshop was enriched by the contributions of esteemed resource persons, who are distinguished figures in their respective fields:

Dr. Samik Chakraborty, Principal of RERFGI, known for his insightful approach to educational leadership and his advocacy for integrating design thinking into academic curricula.

Mr. Milan Mazumder, Principal of RIST, who brings a wealth of experience in innovative educational practices and a deep understanding of the practical applications of design thinking in engineering.

Dr. Rajorshi Bandopadhyay, Dean Academic at RERFGI, whose expertise in critical thinking and academic innovation has significantly contributed to advancing the institution's educational mission.

Proceedings of the Program:

Venue: RERFGI Seminar Hall

Time: 11 AM to 5 PM

Mode: Offline

- Introduction and Welcoming Remarks (11:00 AM - 11:15 AM): The session commenced with a warm welcome from Ms. Monalisa Shaw, who introduced the workshop's themes and objectives. She underscored the importance of design thinking, critical thinking, and innovation in addressing today's complex challenges.

- Inaugural Addresses by Resource Persons (11:15 AM - 11:45 AM):

- Dr. Samik Chakraborty highlighted the significance of fostering an innovative mindset in students and faculty, emphasizing the role of design thinking in educational excellence.

- Mr. Milan Mazumder shared insights into the practical applications of design thinking in engineering and technology, encouraging participants to adopt a user-centered approach to problem-solving.

- Dr. Rajorshi Bandopadhyay discussed the importance of critical thinking in the innovation process, advocating for a thoughtful analysis and questioning of conventional solutions.

- Interactive Lecture Sessions (11:45 AM - 1:45 PM): Each resource person led a detailed lecture session focusing on specific aspects of design thinking, critical thinking, and innovation. Participants were introduced to foundational concepts, methodologies, and case studies that illustrated the successful application of these principles in various contexts.

- Lunch Break (1:45 PM - 2:30 PM): A brief intermission allowed participants to network and discuss the morning's insights informally.

- Hands-On Workshops (2:30 PM - 4:30 PM): The afternoon sessions were dedicated to hands-on workshops where participants, guided by the resource persons, engaged in group activities designed to apply the concepts learned. Through these interactive exercises, attendees worked on developing innovative solutions to predetermined problems, utilizing design thinking and critical analysis.

- Q&A and Reflection Session (4:30 PM - 4:55 PM): The workshop concluded with an open Q&A session, providing an opportunity for participants to seek clarification, share their workshop experiences, and discuss the application of the day's lessons in their future projects and research.

- Closing Remarks and Vote of Thanks (4:55 PM - 5:00 PM): Ms. Monalisa Shaw delivered the closing remarks, summarizing the day's key takeaways and expressing gratitude to the resource persons and participants for their active engagement and contributions to the success of the workshop.

Summary

The Workshop on Design Thinking, Critical Thinking, and Innovation Design was a significant event, drawing a total of 138 participants, including 96 students and 42 faculty members, to the RERFGI Seminar Hall. This comprehensive platform allowed for the exploration and application of essential innovation principles in creative problem-solving. Leveraging the expertise of esteemed resource persons and the active engagement of a diverse group of attendees, the workshop successfully met its objectives. It fostered an environment that inspired innovative thinking and collaborative learning among the RERFGI community, marking a noteworthy contribution to the academic and professional development of its participants.

Outcome of the Program:

The Workshop on Design Thinking, Critical Thinking, and Innovation Design, held on the 25th of January, 2024, achieved several significant outcomes that contributed to the broader goals of fostering a culture of innovation and collaborative learning at the Regent Education and Research Foundation Group of Institutions (RERFGI):

Enhanced Skills in Design and Critical Thinking: Participants left the workshop with a strengthened understanding of design thinking and critical thinking methodologies, equipped with practical tools and techniques to approach complex problems innovatively.

Promoted Interdisciplinary Collaboration: By bringing together 96 students and 42 faculty members from various disciplines, the workshop encouraged interdisciplinary dialogue and collaboration, highlighting the value of diverse perspectives in the innovation process.

Inspired Innovative Thinking: The event served as a catalyst for inspiring participants to adopt innovative thinking in their academic and professional pursuits, emphasizing the importance of creativity and innovation in achieving sustainable solutions.

Practical Application of Concepts: Through hands-on activities and interactive sessions, attendees applied learned concepts to real-world scenarios, enhancing their ability to translate theoretical knowledge into practical innovation.

Built a Community of Innovators: The workshop played a crucial role in building a community of like-minded individuals committed to driving innovation within the institution and beyond, fostering a network of support and collaboration.
